TURKEYS CAPONS DUCKS GUINEAS BROILERS

And Full Line of FRESH VEGETABLES

SOMERS

Ernest E. Bullard VIOLIN TEACHER

Willimantic two days each

Fer appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Nor-

City of Norwich Water Works

Office of Board of Water Commissioners. Norwich, Conn., March 31, 1914. Water rates for the quarter ending March 21, 1814, are due and payable at the office April 1, 1914. Office open from 8.30 a. m. to 5 p. m. Additions will be made to all bills aprid JOHN J. SHEA, Cashier.

Dickinson's PINE TREE Brand Timothy is put up in machinesewed bags, sewed with red string and stenciled with trade-mark as above. This trade-mark is your guarantee of a uniform, high-quality Timothy seed.

Average Purity 99½ Per Cent

For twenty years the biggest timothy seller in

We recommend Pine Tree timothy because we know you will like it. FOR SALE BY

Just received a car of Maine

Seed Potatoes. A cargo of Fertilizer for all purposes. This shipment contains 50 tons of raw ground

A full stock of Jno. Dur Farming Implements.

All kinds of Farm and Garden Seed.

T. H. ELDREDGE 85 Water Street

F. W. GUILD

IT'S NONE TOO EARLY To call and see my New Arrivals in Silverware from the leading designers, specially se-lected for Wedding Gifts. Now is just the time. TO SELECT GIFTS FOR THE

EASTER WEDDING 56 Main Street

1647 Adam's Tavern

offer to the public the finest standars brands of Beer of Europe and Americ Bohemian, Pilauer, Cuhabach Bayarian Beer, Bass, Fair and Burton Mueir's Scotch Ale, Guidness' Dublin Stout, C. & C. Imported Ginger Ale Bunker Bull P. B. Ale, Frank Jones' Nourish-ing Ale, Sterling Bitter Ale, Anheuser, Budweiser Schlitz and Pabst. A. A. ADAM, Norwich Town

DR. F. W. HOLMS, Dentist Telephone 522. oction

Telephone 447-12

F. C. GEER, PIANO 122 Prospect Street, Norwich, Ct. 'Phone 511

Oils, Gasoline, Etc.

JONATHAN SMITH, 30 Town Street, Norwich, Conn. Goods delivered to all parts of city. INCUBATOR OIL A SPECIALTY Telephone 318

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Monday, April 6, 1914.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Hely week will mean little doing in social way. Ponds and brooks in the suburbs are full to overflowing. A meeting of the Wilcox family and allied families was held in Meriden Friday evening.

Miss Meitzer of Willington has sold her farm and bought another near New London.

A pleasant Saturday encouraged the merchants and gave a boom to the Easter trade.

"September Morn," at Colonial the-atre. Season's biggest motion picture success.—Adv.

The Passover feast will be observed by the Jewish residents beginning Good Friday.

Twenty applicants passed the test given by the state board of examiners of barbers March 30 at the capitol,

The palms distributed in the churches on Palm Sunday come from Florida and churches pay $4 a hundred heads. Miss Exther Gallup has resigned as teacher in the grammar department of Niantic school and returned to her ome in Moosup, The annual meeting and banquet of the Connecticut Editorial association is to be held in Hartford at the Hotel Garde, Monday, April 13.

Senator and Mrs. George M. Lan-ders have returned to their home at the Pequot having spent the winter at Irvington-on-the-Hudson.

Sunday furnished another vaude-ville weather programme, with snow, rain, sleet, sunshine and temperature near the freezing point all day.

The April session of the superior court opens in Rockville with a short calendar on Thursday. Judge Gardiner Greene of Norwich will preside.

Saturday morning at 8 o'clock, in St. Patrick's church, there was an anni-versary requiem high mass for James of cory, sung by the rector, Rev. John reopening of the Simpso Crawford store in New York is of local interest, since James Simpson was one of the proprietors of the Boston store, in Norwich, about 1878.

Mrs. Nancy Wheeler of Niantic cel-ebrated her 82nd birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. David C. Cuin-tey, Thursday, entertaining her chil-dren and other relatives.

Norwich travelers to South Norwalk, Bridgeport and other points on the New York division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad east New Haven and Hartford railroad eas of Stamford will find occasional elec-

Hartford papers note that Mrs. John M. Gallup of Forest street is to give a tea dance at the Hartford Golf club. Wednesday afternoon, April 15, for the younger set in honor of her niece, Miss Katherine Nordell of Brookline Mass.

F. S. Luther of Trinity college, a veteran of the Civil war and a member of Sedgwick post, G. A. R., reached his 81st birthday last week, the anniversary being commemorated by a quiet family gathering at the Local temperance workers hear from Portland, Maine, of the serious ill-ness of Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, known internationally as vice pres-ident of the World Women's Christian Temperance union and president of the National W. C. T. U.

Prof. C. D. Jarvis, of Storrs, who as spoken in Norwich several times, is to give the orchard demonstration of pruning and spraying this (Mon-day) afternoon, at one o'clock, at the farm of Elmer R. Pierson near the West Side trolley terminus.

Groton coal dealers have taken orders for a considerable quantity of coal in New London. The delivery carts go across the ferry almost every day, the Groton dealers thus competing with the New London dealers in their own territory.—New London

The county commissioners in ses The county commissioners in ses-sion at New London received an appli-cation for a license from the Hotel Griswold company, Morton F. Piant's summer hostelry at Eastern Point, The application will probably be granted the latter part of the month or early

Members of the Ladies' auxiliary to memoers of the Ladies auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Train-men, attended the meeting of lodge No. 90, in New Haven last week, from the lodges throughout the state com-ing to hear Drs. D. F. Leonard, a grand lodge officer from headquarters, Columbus Oblos. Columbus, Ohio

There will be special services in the Mantic Congregational church this week. Thursday evening Rev. William F. White of Old Saybrook and Friday evening Rev. Dr. Charles A. Northrop of Norwich will speak. The sermon Easter Sunday morning will be by Rev. George S. Pollock of Norwich.

FUNERAL.

W. W. Seagrave. The funeral of William Walter Seagrave, formerly of South Coventry, who died at the home of his son, William D. Seagrave, in New London last Wedesday, was held Saturday and the nesday, was held Saturday and the body was taken to Willimantic for burial. Mr. Seagrave was born at South Coventry March 1, 1872. He was a farmer in his early days. He enlisted in Company D, Twenty-first Connecticut volunteers, and served till the close of the war. Several years ago Mr. Seagrave went to New London to live with his son. Another son, O. E. Seagrave, resides in Middletown and a brother resides in St. Cloud Fig. brother resides in St. Cloud, Fla.

W. A. Gallagher's Paper. The Filene class in Public Speaking in-Boston on occasions is given topics that the instructor feels, will prove almost impossible to do any thing with.
At the last meeting such a subject,
What I Learned From the Telephone Book, was assigned to W. A. Gallagher, which he handled with his customary

PERSONALS

David Thayer of Norwich visited in

Miss Gladys and Ruth Griswold of Groton are the guests of relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Wright of New London are to make their home in Windham.

Mrs. M. M. Smith of Main street is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clara Hul-bert in New York. Miss Mary Dolbeare of West Thames street is spending a week with Mrs. Joseph Hanlon of New York. Earl E. Mathewson, city court clerk, returned Sunday evening from a brief visit to his home at Middletown.

Miss Rose Carrier, who is teaching at Sterling, is home in Chester on account of the illness of her mother. Mr, and Mrs. Clark A. Browning of Toledo, O., is visiting Mr Browning's sister, Mrs. Joseph Burdick of West

Miss Ruth Parkinson, teacher of the senior room at the Dobsonville school, "September Morn" at the Colonial Vernon, is spending the Easter vacation at her home in Norwich, remember.—Adv.

Friends of Day Starter John Kinney were glad to welcome him out on Saturday. He was able to come to the city from his home in Norwich Town for the first time in six weeks as he has been confined to the house with grip.

BIG CROWD SEES

Second Night At Y. M. C. A. Is Great Success.

The second night of the Gym Carnival was held at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening with a record-breaking crowd so that some of the people had to stand up through the entertainment. The program was carried out better than the night before and those in charge said that it was the best yet. All the drills were uniform and the boys worked like clocks. The Roman ladder pyramids made a big bit and they received an ovation as they came onto the floor. Pin-wheels and other pretty effects were formed on the ladders. The whole team had white suits with large blue letter "N" on the front of their leaves. front of their Jerseys. Hans Bauck and George Malcolm helped the Physical Director Nickerson in getting the boys together for their drills and rend-ered valuable assistance.

OBITUARY. Mrs. Thomas Buckle,

Emily Buckle, widow of Thomas Buckle, died at her home on Summit street Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock following an illness of about a week. She was born in Norwich and passed practically all her life here. She was united in marriage with Ronald Mc-Allister who was killed in a runaway accident on Broadway fourteen years ago. Her family at one time resided in Greeneville and Mrs. Buckle was a member of the old Methodist Episcopal church on North Main street. One son by her first marriage, Samuel Mc-Allister, of this city, and five children by her second marriage.

Edward R. Chappell died in Coven-try on Saturday at the age of 79 years and 9 months. He was born in Wind-F. S. Luther of Trinity college, a native of Brooklyn, headed the list of pall bearers at the funeral of the Right Rev. William Niles, bishop of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New Hampshire held at Concord Friday.

Miss Maytie Daly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Daly, of Manchester and Garrett M. O'Nell of East Hampton will be married in St. Bridget's church. Manchester, Tuesday morning, April 14, by Rev. C. T. McCann.

Humphrey Gallivan, of Mohegan, a veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Civil war and a membro of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Quarryville M. E. veteran of the Civil war and a membro of the Saturday and had lived on the farm above Quarryville for the past dout the happiness of these same people when they confessed their sins and asked for forgive-field. Mrs. D. L. After the sermon two pentents confessed their sins and asked for forgive-field Mrs. D. L. After the sermon two pout the happiness of these same people when they confessed their sins and asked for forgive-field Mrs. D. L. Afte

Mrs. W. S. Allen, is living. He was a member of the Quarryville M. E. church where the funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon. A neighbor said he hoped Mr. Chappell had escaped the curse, "Woe unto you when all speak well of you," for so they did Isaac Ginsberg Arrested in New Lonspeak of him.

Erastus Winthrop Morgan, The death of Erastus Winthrop Morgan, a former resident of this city many years ago, occurred on Saturday, April 4th, at Placerville, Cal. He was unmarried and 69 years old. He was a native of Hartford and was the son of the late Erastus and Mary Leonard Morgan. He has distant relatives in

Mrs. Halsey F. Bidwell. Eliza G. Durkee, widow of Halsey F. Bidwell died at her home, No. 238 Broad street Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock following an illness of some duration. She was born in this city where she passed the greater part of her life. She was united in marriage with Halsey F. Bidwell by Rev. Dr. Alvan Bond. Mr. Bidwell died about ten years ago. Mrs. Bidwell, who was the last of her family, was a member of the Second Congregational church, She leaves one step-daughter, Mrs. Mary L. Wethone step-daughter, Mrs. Mary L. Wein-erell of South Manchester and two nieces, Mrs. John W. Williams of New York and Mrs. Clara Stohr of Sedro Woolley, Washington. Mrs. Bidwell had a large circle of friends who will regret to learn of her death. She was a patient sufferer through her last years as well as during the long period of infirmities pre-

WEDDING. Feltcorn-Salomon.

Harry Feltcorn of this city and Miss Madeline Salomon of New London were married in New Britain Friday. The ceremony was performed by a justice of the peace. News of the marriage came as a surprise to their many relatives and friends in both

In addition to the civil ceremony the religious ceremony was to take place Sunday, the couple being married by a rabbi in New Britain. Harry Salomon, brother of the bride, left New London Saturday afternoon to attend the cere-

ony. Miss Salomon is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Salomon of Union street New London. Mr. Feltcorn plays in the orchestra at a theatre in New Britain and is a well known musician. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Felt-corn of No. 3 High street.

Frank L. Palmer's Condition. The condition of Frank L. Palmer of New London, president of the Pal-Camden, S. C., several weeks in the hope of deriving beneficial health re-sults and who rested from the journey homeward when he arrived in New York, Wednesday, is not improved and his removal to his home in New London has been deferred until such time as his strength will permit. Mr Palmer's condition is such as to cause his family considerable alarm.

Music at Backus Hospital. Music at William W. Backus hos-pital Sunday was arranged for by Class Circle of The King's Daughters. Wedding Reception And Dance.

A reception, followed by a dance, was given on Saturday evening for the guests who had attended the wedding of Benjamin Goldberg and Miss Mary Brothers of Joseph hall.

Class Circle of The King's Daughters. The programme was cheering and bright and provided a delightful hour of that country. They showed the gathering of the wise men who followed the star looking for the Messiah. The boyhood of Ben Hur is vaccal selections were delightfully given the call selections were delightfully given by Charles D. Geer, who was also accompanist for the soloists. The vocal selections were delightfully given by Charles D. Geer, baritone, Joseph Ben Hur is Valerius, the Roman, and Ben Hur is R. Schwartz, tenor and Miss Marian deserts him, and from then on a very complete showing of the scenes of the laterations.

29 YEARS OF ELECTRIC LIGHT

Current First Turned On Here In March, 1885-Station On Chestnut Street—Began With Two 38 Light Dynamos City Plant Now Equipped With 2,000 and 750 Kilowatt Turbines, 450 and 150 Kilowatt Generators.

spending a week with Mrs.
Mathewson, city court clerk, Sunday evening from a brief is home at Middletown.

Mathewson in Chester on the clearly in the base of the mother.

Mathewson in Chester on the countries of the mother of the first time at the Dobsonville school, as yelling Mr. Clark, a Browning of is sufficient to the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the Mr. Ring has a small engine at the Dobsonville school, as spending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mat the Dobsonville school, as pending the Easter vacath of the mather than the two engine beds are the thing that the two engine beds are the the thing that the two engine beds are the thing that the thing that the plant and Mr. Fillmore was general utility man. He was at the plant and Mr. Fillmore was general utility man. He was at the plant and Mr. Fillmore was general utility man. He was at the plant and Mr. Fillmore was general utility man. He was at the plant and Mr. Fillmore was general utility man. He was at the plant and Mr. Fillmore was general utility man. He was at the fore the plant and Mr. Fillmore was general utility man. He was at the fore the plant and Mr. Fillmore was general utility man. He was at the fore the plant and Mr.

square, which were put up largely for demonstration purposes. The other service was in the commercial line. The plant started with two 28-light dynamos, one engine and one Jarvis

In contrast with this modest power plant under private ownership is the present city-owned plant with a power equipment of one General Electric 2,000 kilowatt turbine, one 750 kilowatt turbine, one 450 kilowatt generator connected to a Bass engine, and one 150 kilowatt generators. roller. one 150 kilowatt generator connected to a Fleming engine, while over 500 are and electric lights are used by the city alone, and there are also the hun-dreds of lights in commercial service. When the Plant Started.

The following is from The Bulletin of Monday, March 23, 1885, describing the beginning of electric light service in Norwich: The Norwich Electric Lighting company started up their works Saturday night with 42 Thomson-Houston burn-ers of 2,000 candle power each, and the business section was illuminated as never before. The enterprise was started by H. F. Frost of New Haven, W. B. Hosmer of Boston and J. Jepson of Norwich. These gentlemen have relied wholly upon the merits of the system adopted, which is the American,

PREACHING BRINGS PENITENTS AMATEUR FIRE FIGHTERS TO CONFESS SINS

Army Meeting. There was a fair sized attendance the Salvation Army meeting in the Isbister and Robert O. Fletcher, fought hall in the Kenyon block Sunday evening, and Captain Wilbur spoke from at the Academy building on Saturday the 113th Psalm. He pictured first the people who were against these com-mands of the Lord and how they met with losses, agony and remorse. On the other side Captain Wilbur pletured tour of all the New England corps and from here will go to New London. where he is to speak.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT. don and Brought Here.

Isaac Ginsberg, a Norwich tailor, was arrested at New La London Saturday at the request of the Norwich polici charged with embezzlement, who ask charged with embezzlement, who asked for his detention until an officer could be sent to bring him back. Ginsberg was found at Union station with his brother, waiting for a train to New York. In his possession was a portable sewing machine, constructed for sewing pockets in garments and this machine is what caused the trouble. machine is what caused the trouble.

It is valued at $135.

The agent for the sewing machine, which weighs 75 pounds, and was carried by Ginsberg in a box, says it was placed in Gilbert's shop on a conditional sale arrangement and claims that Ginsberg violated a contract by attempting to remove the machine from his shop and it was suspected that he was taking it to New York, where it would be impossible to recover it. Ginsberg was locked up and brought back to this city by Policeman Charles Smith, who was sent after him. He denied the charge of embezzlement and said he had bought the machine. and said he had bought the machine.
Ginsberg and some of his friends trial to get bail for him, but did not succeed in raising the $500 needed so that he stayed in the cell at police headquarters over Saturday and Sun-

Mr. Ginsberg and Louis Zimmerman have been in business as partners in White's court, doing business as the

TWO ACT FARCE.

Dinnr at Six Givtn by All Around Club at Second Church. Under the auspices of the Around club a pleasing entertainment for the members of the Second Congregational church was given on Friday evening in the Sunday school room in the presenting of a farce and an enjoyable musical programme.

The music was by the Ideal orchestra and was a delightful part of In the farce, entitled Dinner At Six, which was of two acts and very cleverly given by the following cast:

Mrs. Lotrace ... Miss Mollie Kampf
Mrs. Payson ... Miss Bessie McNickle
Betty Miss Januis Dearing the entertainment. Mrs. Sniggins Miss Isabella Saevenson country Mrs. Sniggins Miss Isabella Saevenson Country Mrs. Lotrace Mm. Honeyman Percy Markell John Eaton A social hour with refreshments day quarted the evening which was carried closed the evening which was carried out under the direction of a commit-tee consisting of Mrs. William P. tee consisting of Mrs. William P. The Wade, Miss Ruth Breckenridge, Miss Louise Fitzpatrick and John H. Sher-proval.

man.

deserts him, and from then on a very Joel B. Slocum. The meeting complete showing of the scenes of the exceptionally large attendance.

liberty pole illuminated that neighborhood so that friend could recognize friend across the square. The windows and products with the least amount of friend across the square. The windows of the dry and fancy goods stores were trimmed with delicately colored fabries and the green, navy blues, avenders and other colors heretofore unrecognizable in anything but sunlight were readily distinguishable to the observer. Regardless of the blustering weather, the streets and stores were crowded with people, and until a late hour the station was visited by hundreds of curious citizens to witness the operacurious citizens to witness the opera-tions of the works. The lights had not been in operation two hours when or-ders were received for six new lights to be put in the first of the week.

DO GOOD WORK. Two Before the Altar at Salvation J. T. Isbister and R. O. Fletcher Fight Flames at Academy.

Two Academy graduates, James the flames for their alma mater alone at the Academy building on Saturday the guest of her sister, Miss Ruth Kinevening at 11.29 o'clock and had a ney in Boston has returned. fire in the boiler room in the basement practically all out by the time firement arrived in response to the town from New Haven for a few alarm that Mr. Fletcher rang in from the private box, No. 325, at the Academy.

There

of flame through one of the windows which is in the basement to the left of the main entrance to the building.

While Mr. Eletcher ran for the alarm Huntington street, spent part of last While Mr. Fletcher ran for the alarm box, Mr. Isbister ran to make sure that there was a fire and then shouted that there was a fire and then shouted that there was a fire and then shouted the should be sho for his friend to pull in the slarm. spending his vacation at his home in Smashing in the glass of the box Huntington Place has returned to the with a pair of shoes that he was carrying Mr. Fletcher sent out the call for the fire deartment and then trushed around to the basement entrance on the boys' side of the building, where he found that Mr. Isbister that the base of the same and the same are the same and the same are the same was blazing up to the celling to the celling to the celling while the smoke was so thic they could not see each other and could hardly breathe, but they pulled out the 30 feet of hose and turned on the water. Mr. Isbister taking care of the water, Mr. Isbister taking care of the water by the could be compared to the celling to the could be compared to the celling to the celling to the Miss Amy Cogswell, who has been studying landscape architecture at nozzle and holding the stream on fire while Mr. Fletcher held onto hose.

Studying landscape architecture at Lowthorpe school, Groton, Mass., has finished the course and returned to the hose The fire had started among a mass of waste paper in the room and had ignited a box in which papers were contained and also spread to a partition between the coal bins. The two young men had the room flooded with water ankie deep by the time the fire-men arrived and all that was left of the fire was some spots in the parti-tion still smoldering. Chief Stanton, with the auto chemical the tral station, Chemical company No. 1 from the Main Street station, and Chemical Company No. 3 from the Falls station responded to the alarm and some chemical was used on the Principal H. A. Tirrell said Sunday night that the best explanation he could see of the start of the fire was that mise had been gnawing matches that were probably among the waste paper. Crumbs among the waste paper had probably attracted the mice. Janitor Patrick Rafferty had left the building at 5.15 o'clock in the afternoon and no one had been in it up to the time of the fire. Principal Tirrell said. The blaze would prabably have done no harm and would have burned itself out if it had not been discovered as it was in a

IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE

Murray D. Lincoln from Massachu setts Agricultural College Is the Choice.

Murray D. Lincoln, at present a senior at Massachusetts Agricultural college at Amherst was chosen for county advisor for the New London County Improvement league at a meeting of the directors held here Saturday afternoon at the league's head-quarters in the Transportation com-BEN HUR SCENES Given With Lecture for Y. M. C. A. Meetings.

Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. General Secretary Edwin Hill gave an illustrated lecture on the life of Hen Hur. The slides used were very attractive, showing the beautiful scenery of that country. They showed the gathering of the wise men who follow-

At the boys' meeting the same lecture was used, delivered by Rev. Dr. macy.

Joel B. Slocum. The meeting had an P. S. For pimples and blotches try

THE EASIEST WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that never falls to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

under full head.

The dynamos were put in motion at 5.15 o'clock and at 5.30 were connected with the circuits. In a second every lamp on the plant was ablaze. The system was at full force before sunset, and as the lights kept. In abeyance the gathering shadows of night they began to display a power gratifying to people who stroil through the city streets.

The light was brilliant and steady, and so far as could be learned gave perfect satisfaction. The two large exhibition lights on Franklin square liberty pole illuminated that neighbor-mittee and each director is to name one person from his town to serve There was also a children's work committee appointed consisting of County Advisor Lincoln, Mrs. Frederick

Miss Flora Hall of New York is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank

Mrs. F. S. Camp and Miss Emily Camp have returned from a short trip to New York.

Miss Caroline Gilman has come to She will return there for over an entertainment at the Y. M. C. A., and were standing at the Park church corner talking when they saw a flash of flame through one of the window.

ing, where he found that Mr. Isbister had already smashed out a pane of glass in the deor with his fist, and was able to reach through and in the door to get at the fire hose which he knew spring vacation at his home in Saugerlies, N. Y., has returned.

Norwich Miss Lucille O. Lord entertained a few friends at her home on Wash-ington street Saturday evening Games were played and later refreshments

Miss Marjorie W. Browning, who is teaching in Miss Fine's private school in Princeton, N. J., is at her home at Kitemaug-on-the-Thames for the the issued invitations to the marriage re-ception of her daughter. Ada Louise and Albert Hunt Chase, on Saturday evening, April the 25th. Mrs. Charles Lewis Richards has

Easter vacation

Mrs, Charles A. Burnham, who has been spending the winter with her daughters, Mrs. Frederick Warner of New Brighton, Mass., and Mrs. Shel-don C. Peck of Newark, N. J., is in town for a week, Miss Sarah Leavens of Lincoln avemie has returned after spending the week in New York. Dickson H. Leav-ens instructor of mathematics at Yale university, spent the week end at his home on Broadway.

room with concrete walls, ceiling and floor. He commended the good work done by those who put out the fire.

COUNTY ADVISOR FOR

IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE

Was in a street and Miss Helen P. Browning of Broadway have resumed their studies at Smith college, Northampton, Mass, after passing the spring vacation at their homes in Norwich.

WHAT IS VINOL?

About Which We Hear so Much? Our

Druggist Tells You. After twenty years of study two a method by which the alkaloids o medicinal curative elements coffs liver could be separated from the useless oil or grease. The oil which has no mmitmmitmmitmmitmmitpany's building on Shetucket street.
The choice is to be submitted to miss.
The choice is to be submitted to miss no medicinal value is thrown away, but the healing, curative properties are blended with tonic
iron and a mild medicinal wine which makes Vinol, thus combining in one medicine the two most world famed tonics.
The choice is to be submitted to
miss no medicinal value is thrown away, but the healing, curative properties are blended with tonic iron and a mild medicinal value is thrown away, but the healing, curative properties are blended with tonic
iron and a mild medicinal wine in a mild medicinal value is thrown away, but the healing, curative properties are blended with tonic
iron and a mild medicinal wine iron and book were given, with the lecture in explanation of them.

There was a large attendance.
At the boys' meeting the same lecture in the boys' meeting the same lecture in the boys' meeting the same lecture.

At the boys' meeting the same lecture in the boys' meeting the same lecture.

At the boys' meeting the same lecture in the boys' meeting the same lecture.

At the boys' meeting the same lecture in the boys' meeting the boys' meeting the boys' me unexcelled.

our Saxe Saive. We guarantee it.

CUMMINGS & RING Funeral Directors

337 MAIN STREET Opposite Post Office. Phone 1052-2 Lady Assistant

and Embalmers

Comfort and Beauty In Double Vision Glasses

Close at hand—or far away—'s all the same to the wearer KRYPTOK Lenses. Far vision at top-near vision at bottom-fused into one solid lens without seams or cement

RYPTO

Don't be annoyed with two pairs of glasses these care-free days. Be comfortable—wear KRYPTOKS. They keep you looking young because no one can tell they're double vision glasses. We sell and guarantee KRYPTOKS.

We grind lenses-prompt servce-satisfaction guaranteed.

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.

Optical Department Plaut-Cadden Building.

9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Daily

POOR DENTISTRY

You can't afford it, we can't afford it. We are constantly proving it is possible to exe-

THE BEST DENTAL WORK ABSOLUTELY PAINLESS AT A MODERATE PRICE,

Examinations Free. DR. F. C. JACKSON DR. D. J. COYLE

ment is a popular institution.

That's why this establish-

Succeeding The King Dental Co., 203 Main Street, next to Boston Store. 'Phone 1282-3 Lady Attendant

tine Canned Peaches at RALLION'S

First-class Merchant Tailor

CLEANING and REPAIRING, and SHOE REPAIRING We give trading stamps. Call at 38 Market Street. S. MIKOLASI. Tel. call 537-5

Spring Shirtings FOR SEASON OF 1914

Garments of a high standard that have made this Shop notably a headquarters for authoritative styles and uncommonly attractive patterns. Both stock and custom lines now ready and we show astonishingly complete assortments of both.

The Toggery Shop 291 MAIN STREET

Norwich, Conn.

1914 Wall Papers A full line of the acove with new additions coming along, including those with cut out borders. Moldings and Bands to match. Mixed Paints, Muresco and Tints; also Art Glass imitations.

We are in the market for Painting.

Paper Hanging and Decorating all the P. F. MURTAGH 92 and 94 West Main Street

Sweet Potatoes TOMATOES

SPINACH GREEN PEPPERS People's Market

6 Franklin St.

ASPARAGUS

JUSTIN HOLDEN, Prop. Palace Pool and Billiard Parlors Six Tables-five pool and one Billiard Tables sold and repairing done at reasonable prices.

Supplies at all times. 49 MAIN STREET